

The Quaglinos is right behind the opera house and is a vivid and popular venue for world open wallowers. No matter if artists, journalists or night owls, the visitors are of a broad range.

Art Deco flair, a warm ambience as well as the classical bar make extensive meals, a chilled glass of wine or tapas till late in the evening an enjoyable happening. During lunch or cosy warm summer evenings - on the nice boulevard terrace, just a few steps from the lake - the feeling of pure joy of life is omnipresent. In the Quaglinos days can start calm and easy with a nice coffee or an extended breakfast and a huge range of daily newspapers.
